

SUMMER READING 2019

Summer break brings many opportunities for each of us to experience new adventures and reunite with family and friends, as well as time to relax. We also recommend ten hours of experiences—written text, eBook, audio or visual, in a variety of literary genres.

Attached, please find:

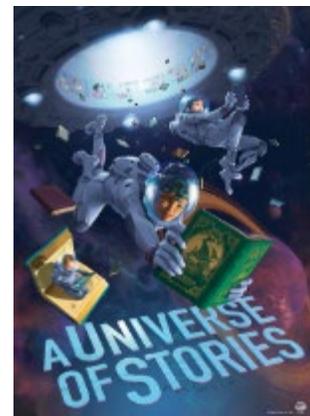

A list of suggested titles for summer reading

Task cards to complete for novel read

Bookshare family account information for free eBook listening/reading

Bring completed task cards to school in the fall. Extra copies of all summer reading materials are available at the school web site.

Whether you are headed to the beach, to a summer camp, or spending time at home with your family and friends, remember to take the time to do something positive for continued educational growth – get involved with literature!

*Alternatively, public library, bookstore or any other summer reading program record of completion may be submitted.
