

Summer Reading 2020

Have fun reading this summer. Explore different types of reading materials in different kinds of formats: magazines, books, websites, cookbooks and craft books. In print you can read magazines, books, manuals, and more. Digital resources offer ebooks, audio books, databases, emagazines, websites, newspapers and more.

Please complete the 2-part reading log. Mark off the boxes and write down what you read.

Name: _____

2020-21 Teacher _____

Reading Bingo, Riverside Reads

R	E	A	D	S
Read in Bed 	Listen to an audio book 	Read an ebook 	Read a news article	Read for 15 minutes
Perform a Readers' Theater	Read to someone on Zoom 	Read Jokes to someone	Read to a pet 	Read to a worm (or insect, or reptile)
Read on a Database	Visit an author's website and read about them		Read a poem	Read outside
Read instructions to build or use something	Read for 15 Minutes 	Read to someone who loves you 	Read on PebbleGo or PebbleGo Next 	Read a book in a series
Read something from the library 	Read a letter that you have written or received	Illustrate a story you love 	Summarize a chapter or a book for your parents	Read something funny

Summer Reading Log 2020

Name _____

2020-21 Teacher _____

Write down the title and format of your reading material. Format includes book, magazine, database name, audio book, ebook, newspaper, website, etc.

[illegible]